SUGGESTIONS

Killing Time

If you're just looking to kill time, The Block at Orange is a good choice especially considering it's just over a mile from the hotel. While it doesn't have department stores such as Nordstrom or Macy's it has a decent selection of other stores such as Anchor Blue, Border's, Nike Factory Store and Old Navy. In addition there are plenty of restaurants such as TGI Friday's and El Torito. Entertainment options include Dave & Busters restaurant/arcade, AMC at the Block, a 30 screen movie theatre and Lucky Strike, an upscale bowling alley.

Traditional Mall

The Westfield MainPlace Mall is a traditional mall just over 3 miles from the hotel. MainPlace is a two/three-story mall that includes department stores such as Macy's and Nordstrom, a food court, sit-down restaurants such as the Olive Garden and El Torito and a discount, 6 screen movie theatre.

Outlet Malls

Southern California is not well known for its selection of outlet malls. The closest outlet is the Citadel Outlets which is 22 miles from the hotel, an expensive taxi ride for an outlet center that is not located in the best of areas. If you don't have a vehicle no outlet center is worth the taxi ride as whatever you will save will be spent on transportation. If you do have a vehicle the Citadel Outlets are worth checking out if heading towards L.A. or the Carlsbad Outlets are a good choice if heading towards San Diego. The Lake Elsinore Outlets and/or Ontario Mills are decent but there isn't much nearby of interest except Temecula, a city known for its numerous wineries.

High-End

If you're looking for high-end stores such as Gucci and Louis Vuitton then South Coast Plaza is the place for you. While it includes everyday stores like Sears and Old Navy, South Coast Plaza specializes in high-end stores you wouldn't find at your average mall such as Giorgio Armani and Tiffany & Co. The mall is about 13 miles from the hotel so a taxi can be expensive ($30-45) but it's close to the John Wayne airport so it might not be a bad idea to stop there on your way back home if luxury is what you're looking for.
